

Located just 5 km west of Colmar, in the very heart of the vineyards of Alsace, Domaine JOSMEYER, has been producing stunning white wines for five generations. These wines are resolutely dry and elegant with some raciness and are created to bring out the flavours of the foods chosen to accompany them. From the outset, each generation of our family has been fired with the passion and spirit of excellence which continues to this day.

Domaine JOSMEYER comprises 25 ha of which 5 ha are located in the Grand Cru vineyards of Hengst and Brand. Reflecting our utmost respect for nature, all our vineyards are now cultivated according to biodynamic principles.
