

Cuvée F. Château de Fontcreuse Rosé

AOP Cassis (Provence), Cuvée F, Rosé

*It is the delicate pastel of the bush peach robe that catches the eye.
*

*
*

*The nose is gently assailed by the aroma of white flowers and peaches.
*

*
*

*In the mouth, the rosé reveals a wonderful lasting taste, fullness and richness.
*

*
*

*As for the aromas, a bouquet of red fruit, with the presence of blackberry and raspberry tinged with pleasant citrus characteristics.
*

*
*

A real pleasure.
