

Cuvée F. Château de Fontcreuse Rosé

AOP Cassis (Provence), Cuvée F, Rosé

It is the delicate pastel of the bush peach robe that catches the eye.

The nose is gently assailed by the aroma of white flowers and peaches.

In the mouth, the rosé reveals a wonderful lasting taste, fullness and richness.

As for the aromas, a bouquet of red fruit, with the presence of blackberry and raspberry tinged with pleasant citrus characteristics.

A real pleasure.
