

CHÂTEAU PARADIS CASSEUIL 2013

■ VINEYARD ATTRIBUTES

Appellation : AOC Bordeaux, France

■ VINTAGE SUMMARY

The 2013 vintage in Bordeaux was characterized by difficult weather conditions. A wet spring resulted in flower abortion and uneven grape size. Hail storms caused losses in the Entre-Deux-Mers region, and there were alternating spells of rain and fine weather until the harvests. The challenge to produce a good quality harvest put our technicians' vigilance to the test this year, and yields proved to be very low, the lowest since the frost in 1991!

■ TASTING NOTES

Colour: Beautiful, very deep crimson colour.

Nose: Elegant and expressive, blending aromas of blackcurrant and Morello cherries with well-integrated, delicate woody (vanilla) notes.

Palate: This is a powerful, well-structured wine, with a pleasant sweetness on the attack, evolving with firm tannins and a long spicy finish.
