La Vieille Ferme

La Vieille Ferme Rosé 2013

Fresh and fruity.... La Vieille Ferme rosé has all the characteristics of an attractive rosé.

PRESENTATION

If you like easy drinking rosé wines, this one is perfectly suiting aperitifs and simple cookery.

THE VINTAGE

The 2013 vintage will be recalled for the continuous work in the vineyard to give the best attention to the grapes during the growing phase.
Even if each vine only gave very few bunches this year, the quality is definitely there.
The 2013 vintage is therefore faithful to the typical character of La Vieille Ferme, an authentic, tasty, truthful wine.

AGEING

Wine elaborated by Saignée method. Vinification in stainless steel tanks until January, the wine is then bottled after fining.

VARIETALS

Cinsault, Syrah, Grenache

SERVING

10-12°C on hors-d'oeuvres, cold buffets, tomato salads, grilled meat, and other summer lunches.

TASTING

Colour: Pale pink with pastel shots. Nose: Perfume of rose petals and citrus fruit. Flavour: Grapefruit aromas and fresh fruit give an intense and balanced wine.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS

"Pale pink-coral in colour with aromas of cantaloupe and hints of citrus. Light flavours of melon and cherry were accented by a decent acidity grapefruit and minerals comprised the dry finish."
The Buddha in your Glass

90/100
"This is one of the tastiest and affordable rosés in the market.
This coquettish little wine simply invites you to dive right in and enjoy its light fruity flavors, its appetite-inducing delicacy, and its crisp finish.
Blended from Grenache, Syrah, Consult, it is an absolutely delightful, inexpensive wine."

87/100

"Plump white cherry and strawberry notes lead the way in this rosé, while a stony edge lines the finish, adding contrast and length. Drink now."
