Court-Jus, Cabernet Sauvignon Rouge BIO, IGP Pays d'Oc

IGP Pays d'Oc, France

Court-Jus is much more than a wine: it's an organic, fair-trade, returnable project that combines quality, ecological commitment and solidarity. By returning your returnable bottles, you're helping to reduce waste and promote a circular economy. Each bottle tells the story of a wine grown with care, sold without intermediaries, to guarantee fair remuneration for the producers. By choosing Court-Jus, you are adopting a responsible approach to consumption, respecting the planet and those who grow it.

PRESENTATION

With La Vicomté, you're embarking on a sustainable and responsible journey, rooted in the values of cooperative farming. By choosing our wines, you become part of a socially responsible economy. Your direct support enables 1,200 winegrowing families to prosper, while preserving and enriching our collective land. As guardians of agriculture, we are firmly committed to respectful and sustainable winegrowing.

Court-Jus embodies this commitment. As France's first organic wine in reused bottles, it is fair trade, with 50% of the selling price paid directly to the producers, guaranteeing fair remuneration. Accessible, it is based on the solidarity-based economic model of our La Vicomté cooperative cellar, with no intermediaries.

This wine, a symbol of a circular economy, allows you to consume responsibly while supporting a transparent production chain that respects nature.

LOCATION

Located between the historic towns of Béziers and Montpellier, discover the original essence of Languedoc wines at La Vicomté.

TERROIR

Our thousand-year-old vineyards stretch across the hills under the radiant southern sun. Here, our vines thrive on Villefranchian terraces and clay-limestone soils, nourished by the rich sediments of the River Hérault. Discover wines of unrivalled character, made from our exceptional terroir.
