TASTING

This is a racy, seductive wine, "dressed" in a beautiful golden color tinged with green. It offers a nuanced bouquet of hazelnuts and ferns, a very dry taste with mineral notes and excellent length. The terroir often imparts spicy flavors. Age makes it a little more golden and spicy. On the palate, its aromas retain their freshness for a long time.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This wine goes perfectly with veal in sauce, scallops with butter and herbs, and most fish. Also good with hard mountain cheeses such as Comté and Beaufort.
