Domaine Vire-Vent - AOP Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence Rosé

AOP Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence, Provence, France

The Domaine was taken over in 1985 by the Benoit family and is located close the village of Baux de Provence. The vineyard covers 10 hectares in the Alpilles massif, with chiselled peaks and the village of Eygalières as a backdrop, which is a picturesque site of the Provence region.

PRESENTATION

This wine comes from the privileged terroir of Provence, which enjoys a variety of soils resulting in an environment that favours a diversity of flavours. The alliance between the region's landscapes and geology, also the Mediterranean climate, confer much depth and uniqueness to the wine.

TERROIR

Nature of the soils: clay-limestone.

WINEMAKING

Mechanical harvest. The juice is obtained for half by direct pressing and by bleeding for the other half. Fermentation at very low temperature only in stainless steel vats. The wine is blocked before the malolactic fermentation.

VARIETALS

Grenache noir, Syrah

TECHNICAL DATA

Residual Sugar: < 2 g/l

SERVING
