LA CAVE DU TONNELIER

•1776•

Today's Cave du Tonnelier («Cooper's Cellar») is the result of a long tradition of craftsmanship. François Joseph HAULLER (1775-1848) and all his descendants were entirely dedicated to the coopering of wooden casks. Léon HAULLER (1913-2005) is the last in a line of Master-Coopers. Early in the last century, this passion expanded to encompass both Vineyards and Wine, which grew to become the principal activity of his son Louis and his grandson Claude, who today are the winegrowers at DOMAINE DU TONNELIER.

The skill, precision and knowledge of 5 generations of Master-Coopers have forged the passion for Fine Wines that motivates the younger generations of the HAULLER family.
