

Domaine Berthenet

In Montagny, Domaine Berthenet is one of those family estates that truly showcase the elegance of the Côte Chalonnaise. Rooted in the appellation for several generations, the domaine farms around 20 hectares, mainly planted with Chardonnay, with a strong presence on Montagny Premier Cru vineyards.

What sets the estate apart is its ability to highlight the finesse of this sometimes understated terroir, through wines that are precise, vibrant and luminous. Winemaking remains restrained and carefully managed, allowing the freshness and minerality of the limestone soils to fully express themselves.

The wines offer elegant, balanced and highly expressive whites, true ambassadors of Montagny's refined and distinctive style.
