

Domaine Larue

Located in Saint-Aubin, in the heart of the Côte de Beaune, Domaine Larue is a family estate of around 17 hectares, with vineyards spread across Saint-Aubin, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet. The domaine is now run by Didier and Denis Larue, continuing the work carried out by previous generations.

The family has long been closely associated with the promotion of the Saint-Aubin appellation, helping to highlight the quality and potential of its terroirs, particularly through several well-regarded Premier Cru vineyards.

Vineyard work is carried out with great care, and vinifications remain precise and balanced in order to preserve the identity of each parcel. The wines are known for their precision, freshness and elegance, with finely chiseled whites that beautifully reflect the limestone terroirs of the Côte de Beaune.
