

Chateau Haut Lignieres

Nestled on the heights of Faugères in Languedoc, Château Haut Lignières benefits from an exceptional terroir of schist soils, which lend the wines remarkable minerality and depth. This family estate combines tradition and innovation to craft wines with a strong identity, authentic reflections of their environment. Harvesting is carried out by hand to preserve the integrity of the grapes and to select only the finest fruit. Vinification is tailored to each plot in order to capture the fullest expression. The reds of Château Haut Lignières, made from Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvèdre, stand out for their aromatic power and elegant structure, while the whites and rosés offer vibrant freshness and notes of white-fleshed fruit. This estate is a true benchmark among the wines of Faugères.
