

Domaine Des Marechaudes

Located near Azé, in the heart of the Mâconnais, Domaine des Maréchaudes embodies a family-driven and artisanal approach to Burgundy wines. As part of Domaine de Rochebin, founded in 1921 and fully dedicated to viticulture and winemaking since 1972, it reflects a longstanding tradition of expertise deeply rooted in its terroir.

Now managed by Mickaël Marillier and his wife Marie-Pierre, the estate oversees 46 hectares of vineyards spread across the diverse landscapes of southern Burgundy. This range of terroirs allows for the cultivation of the region's emblematic grape varieties, including Chardonnay, Gamay, Pinot Noir and Bourgogne Aligoté, offering a portfolio that faithfully expresses the richness of Burgundy's styles.

What sets Domaine des Maréchaudes apart is its commitment to a carefully crafted, artisanal approach, where attention to detail remains paramount. In this distinctive setting, near the village of Azé, renowned for its prehistoric caves, the estate produces wines that are precise, approachable and authentic, defined by their purity and strong family identity.
