

Chateau Vannieres

In Bandol, Château Vannières stands as one of the appellation's defining estates, where Mourvèdre finds an exceptional terroir to fully express its character. On sun-drenched clay-limestone slopes, refreshed by Mediterranean sea breezes, the vines ripen slowly, gaining depth and concentration while preserving balance and freshness.

A historic estate, Château Vannières cultivates its terroir with precision and high standards. Viticulture is carried out with great care, respecting natural balance in order to reveal the full nobility of Mourvèdre. All grapes are harvested by hand, ensuring meticulous selection and outstanding fruit quality.

The reds, built for ageing, display depth and structure, with complex aromas of dark fruit, leather and spice supported by a dense yet refined framework. The rosés, gastronomic and distinctive, combine freshness with intensity and length, offering an ambitious and structured interpretation of Bandol.

Château Vannières embodies a Bandol of character, both powerful and refined, true to the spirit of its appellation.
