

Domaine De Panisse

In the heart of Beaujolais, Domaine De Lathevalle highlights the pure expression of Gamay through cuvées from granite and schist soils. This family estate perpetuates centuries-old viticultural traditions while integrating modern practices that respect the environment. Harvesting is exclusively manual, and vinification follows the traditional Beaujolais method, favoring the brilliance of the fruit and a silky texture. The wines are characterized by intense aromas of red fruits, beautiful natural acidity, and great drinkability. An estate representative of the richness and diversity of Beaujolais crus.
