Cristiana Bettini, DOCG Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore, Red, 2016

DOCG Valpolicella Ripasso Superiore,

Tenuta Vignega has characteristics of pride, tenacity, freedom that unites a father to his daughter. This is the spirit of the Estate, with wines that have bright colors, elegance in aromas, moderate alcohol content, and high drinkability.

PRESENTATION

Valpolicella Ripasso is the spirit of the estate, with a bright color, elegant bouquet, moderate alcohol content, and high drinkability.

TERROIR

Calcareous, shallow with presence of skeleton.

WINEMAKING

The late harvested grapes are crushed and cold macerated for five days with spontaneous fermentation. After racking, the wine is stored in a steel tank until it is overcooked with Amarone pomace of the same vintage. This operation starts at the end of January, where the wine stops in Amarone wine for a week.

AGEING

It is then aged in Slavonian oak barrels and in French oak barrels.
