Southern Rhône, Domaine de Piéblanc, Serre de Supion, AOC Beaumes de Venise, Rouge

AOC Beaumes de Venise, Vallée du Rhône, France

Domaine de Piéblanc is a young estate created by wine lover Matthieu Ponson in 2014, at the bottom of the Mont Ventoux. He farms about 40 hectares, in appellations Ventoux, Gigondas, Beaumes de Venise and Cotes-du-Rhone, surrounded by olive trees (with which he produces his own olive oil!). Since 2020, the vineyard is farmed organically. Matthieu's goal is to produce precise and fruity wines, enhancing the sedimentary terroirs on which his vines are growing.

PRESENTATION

Grenache parcellar selection. Wine aged 18 months in oak barrels. Only 2 500 bottles a year.

TERROIR

Grenache parcellar selection from the locality Serre de Supion in Suzette. The grapes from this plot are picked up the latest to reach perfect maturity. Terraced vineyard with old vines of 70 years at 300 metres altitude.

IN THE VINEYARD

Organic conversion.

Manual picking in 15kg crates – selection of grapes on sorting conveyor before destemming

WINEMAKING

48 h cold temperature maceration before fermentation. Fermentation (average 20 days) in temperature-controlled stainless-steel tanks with daily pumping.

AGEING

18 months in 450l oak barrels of 2–3 wines.

VARIETALS

Grenache noir 65%, Syrah 35%
