

Domaine Hamelin

Founded in 1840 in Beines, in the heart of the Chablis vineyard, Domaine Hamelin has developed over seven generations. Gustave Hamelin initially cultivated 2 hectares, practicing polyculture. Over time, the family expanded the estate, adopting technological advances while preserving traditional know-how. Today, Thierry and Charles Hamelin perpetuate this passion for Chardonnay by applying reasoned viticulture, favoring thermoregulated vinification to preserve the aromatic purity of the wines. The Chablis and Chablis Premiers Crus of the estate express beautiful minerality, notes of citrus and white flowers, and great finesse. Bottling is done at the optimal time to fully express the typical Kimmeridgian terroir of Chablis.
