

Champagne Francois Seconde

Located in Sillery, one of the few Grand Cru villages in Champagne, Champagne François Secondé embodies a precise and authentic vision of this historic terroir of the Montagne de Reims. Founded in the 1970s, the estate remains a family-run domaine, renowned for the precision and elegance of its Champagnes.

The vineyard covers approximately 5.5 hectares, mainly in Sillery, complemented by a few parcels in other classified villages of the Montagne de Reims. This controlled size allows for meticulous parcel-by-parcel management and an intimate understanding of each plot. A specialist in Pinot Noir, the emblematic grape of Sillery, the estate dedicates the majority of its plantings to this variety, alongside Chardonnay. Some older vines draw deeply from the chalky soils, producing grapes that are concentrated, structured and remarkably refined.

In the cellar, vinification in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks and extended ageing on the lees preserve freshness, fruit purity, depth and texture. The Champagnes stand out for their finesse and their long, chalky, mineral finish.
