

Domaine Jaeger-Defaix

The story of Domaine Jaeger-Defaix is one of a meeting between two worlds. On one side, the Chablis heritage of the Defaix family, deeply rooted in winemaking tradition; on the other, a new field of expression in the Côte Chalonnaise, particularly in Rully.

Over time, the estate has embraced these limestone terroirs, different yet complementary to those of Chablis. This dual influence has shaped a distinctive identity, where the precision and tension of northern Burgundy meet the generosity and balance of the Côte Chalonnaise.

What sets the domaine apart is precisely this dual culture, giving rise to wines that are precise, bright and approachable, driven by a pure and expressive fruit profile.
