

Domaine Rémi Jobard

Located in Meursault, Domaine Rémi Jobard is a family estate renowned for the precision and purity of its great white wines. Coming from a family deeply rooted in the village, Rémi Jobard took over the domaine in the late 1990s and quickly established himself as one of the leading signatures of the appellation.

The vineyard covers around 9 hectares, mainly located in Meursault across several renowned climats of the village, allowing different expressions of Chardonnay to emerge from the limestone terroirs of the Côte de Beaune.

The estate has also stood out for its early commitment to organic farming and for precise, low-intervention winemaking aimed at preserving the purity of the fruit. The wines are known for their tension, energy and great finesse, revealing the minerality of Meursault's great terroirs.
