

Domaine Thomas Gerard

In Saint-Aubin, a village experiencing a true revival in the Côte de Beaune, Thomas Gérard represents a new generation of winemakers bringing renewed attention to these hillside vineyards long overshadowed by their famous neighbours. Coming from a local winegrowing family, he founded his domaine with the ambition of revealing the finesse and freshness of Saint-Aubin's terroirs.

Today, the vineyard covers around 11 hectares, mainly spread across Saint-Aubin, Chassagne-Montrachet and Puligny-Montrachet, offering a precise expression of the region's limestone soils.

The estate's signature lies in the purity and energy of its wines: precise, low-intervention winemaking that produces bright, finely chiselled Chardonnays with remarkable tension, true ambassadors of Saint-Aubin's mineral style.
