

Duvernay Père Et Fils

In Mercurey, Domaine Duvernay Père et Fils tells a story of transmission, of a family that has remained deeply faithful to its land and craftsmanship. Each generation has contributed its part, always staying true to the essential: crafting wines that are honest and rooted in their terroir.

Across around 10 hectares, the vineyards stretch around the village, notably in Premier Cru sites, where clay-limestone soils bring depth to Pinot Noir. The work is precise and unshowy, guided by a constant pursuit of balance and respect for the fruit.

What defines the wines is a sense of natural clarity: balanced, sincere cuvées where structure is always matched by finesse. A signature marked by precision and consistency, reflecting a Mercurey shaped with rigor and care.
