

Domaine d'Ardhuy

Located between the Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune, Domaine d'Ardhuy manages an impressive vineyard estate of around 42 hectares, stretching from Gevrey-Chambertin to Puligny-Montrachet. Based in Corgoloin, the family estate cultivates a remarkable mosaic of appellations that reflects the full diversity of Burgundy's Côte.

At the heart of the domaine lies Clos des Langres, a historic walled monopole vineyard and one of the estate's true signatures. This site perfectly illustrates the domaine's philosophy: precision, respect for terroir and a constant search for balance.

Through attentive vineyard work and gentle winemaking, Domaine d'Ardhuy produces elegant, transparent wines where each cuvée clearly expresses the identity of its terroir.
