

Domaine Hudelot Baillet

Located in Chambolle-Musigny, in the heart of the prestigious Côte de Nuits, Domaine Hudelot-Baillet embodies the heritage of seven generations of passionate winemakers. Founded in 1981 by Joël Hudelot with the support of his wife Chantal Baillet, the estate was passed on with care and vision to Dominique Le Guen, and then to his son Tanguy in 2019.

Today, the estate covers 9.37 hectares, including 8.37 hectares of reds, and is dedicated exclusively to the production of exceptional wines, bottled at 100%. Driven by a constant quest for quality and respect for the terroir, father and son adopt a hands-off approach and invest in state-of-the-art equipment. HVE-certified, the domaine combines tradition and modernity to reveal all the finesse of Burgundy's climates.

Each bottle reflects a rich family history, know-how passed on with passion, and a deep connection to the land.
