

Domaine Rémi Jeanniard

In Morey-Saint-Denis, Domaine Rémi Jeanniard is the kind of Burgundy estate that is often discovered through word of mouth. There is no grand stage here, just a winemaker deeply connected to his vineyards and to his village.

At the head of a vineyard of around 6 hectares, Rémi Jeanniard farms parcels across Morey-Saint-Denis, Chambolle-Musigny and Gevrey-Chambertin. A modest surface, yet one that spans several expressions of the Côte de Nuits, from finesse to depth and structure.

What stands out at the domaine is its truly artisanal scale: small volumes, careful attention to each parcel, and an intimate knowledge of every row of vines. Here, the work happens at the rhythm of the vineyard itself.

The wines reflect this spirit, honest, precise and lively, offering a direct expression of the terroirs of Morey-Saint-Denis. Authentic Burgundy that is often discovered quietly, and rarely forgotten.
