

Domaine Couturier

Founded by Marcel Couturier, with a first vintage in 2005, the estate is located in Fuissé, in the heart of the southern Mâconnais. Gradually developed over the years, it now spans around 14 hectares and covers several key appellations, including Mâcon-Fuissé, Mâcon-Loché, Mâcon-Vinzelles, Pouilly-Fuissé, and Pouilly-Loché, one of the most confidential appellations in Burgundy.

What truly sets the estate apart is its commitment to expressing the diversity of the Mâconnais terroirs with precision and sensitivity. Deeply connected to nature and biodiversity, Marcel Couturier strengthened this philosophy with the arrival of Auxence Couturier in 2018, followed by the estate's transition to biodynamic farming in 2019.

Driven by this demanding vision, Domaine Marcel Couturier now stands out as a distinctive name in southern Burgundy. Combining the rarity of certain appellations, meticulous vineyard work and a strong family identity, it produces wines that are precise, vibrant and deeply rooted in their origin.
