

Domaine Mathias

Located in Chaintré, in the heart of the southern Mâconnais, Domaine Mathias is rooted in a long family history, with a winemaking presence dating back to 1894. Today, the estate spans 11 hectares and showcases several key appellations of southern Burgundy, including Pouilly-Fuissé, Pouilly-Vinzelles and Mâcon-Chaintré. This deep-rooted heritage, combined with a precise understanding of the local terroirs, gives the domaine a strong, coherent identity firmly anchored in its region.

The estate's signature lies in a demanding approach focused on purity of expression and respect for the living environment. The vineyards have been farmed under organic practices since 2010, with full AB certification from the 2013 vintage. This philosophy continues in the cellar, where careful winemaking highlights balance, clarity and a faithful expression of each wine's origin.

The wines of Domaine Mathias stand out for their directness, freshness and precision, with profiles that emphasize bright fruit, mineral tension and a clear expression of Chardonnay. The estate has established itself as a reliable name in the Mâconnais, offering wines that are precise,
