

Domaine Pascal Renaud

Located in Pouilly, at the foot of the iconic Solutré rock, Domaine Pascal Renaud is an elegant expression of the Mâconnais landscape. This family estate, whose history dates back to 1927, has been passed down through generations with a deep respect for its terroir. When Pascal Renaud joined in 1986, the domaine entered a new phase of development, and today, Guillaume and Amandine Renaud carry the estate forward, continuing this family legacy with dedication and vision.

Over time, the vineyard has grown to cover approximately 16 to 17 hectares, offering a refined interpretation of southern Burgundy's terroirs. The range highlights key appellations such as Pouilly-Fuissé, Saint-Véran and Mâcon, through a selection of wines that each reflect the identity of their origin. This diversity brings a harmonious balance to the portfolio, combining purity of fruit, elegance and a strong sense of place.

In both vineyard and cellar, the Renaud family embraces a thoughtful and measured approach, guided by respect for nature and a pursuit of authenticity. Their work is focused on preserving the natural balance of the vines while expressing the true character of each cuvée. The resulting wines are sincere and precise, offering a graceful combination of generosity, freshness and refinement.
