Château Gigognan

Located between Avignon and Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Château Gigognan extends across 110 hectares of organically farmed vineyards. Rooted in a winemaking tradition dating back to Roman times, this outstanding estate has been owned by Jean-François Hénin since 2017, whose vision combines respect for the terroir, innovation and a commitment to excellence. The estate produces exceptional wines from the prestigious Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Côtes-du-Rhône Villages Signargues and Côtes-du-Rhône appellations.

The vineyards thrive on a mosaic of rolled pebbles, sandy soils and deep clay, providing ideal conditions for the Rhône Valley's emblematic grape varieties, including Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre. Precise, parcel-by-parcel vinification allows each terroir to express its full identity.

The wines of Château Gigognan combine power, freshness and elegance. The reds reveal intense aromas of black fruit, garrigue and spices, supported by a refined structure, while the whites stand out for their freshness, aromatic purity and remarkable balance.
