

Domaine du Quart Préaux

Located in Clessé, at the heart of the Viré-Clessé appellation, Domaine du Quart Préaux is deeply rooted in the village's history, having been created by the local cooperative winery. This origin gives the estate a distinctive identity within the Mâconnais: one shaped by a collective foundation, yet driven by a clear intention to highlight a specific terroir.

With a vineyard of around 5 hectares, the domaine focuses on a precise and coherent expression of Chardonnay from the Clessé area. This measured scale allows for a particularly clear reading of the appellation, through wines that emphasize balance, precision and a faithful sense of place. The clay-limestone soils, combined with the age of certain vines, contribute to wines with both depth and definition.

Domaine du Quart Préaux stands out through this understated yet confident positioning, where local anchorage remains central. More than just an estate, it offers a sincere and carefully crafted interpretation of Viré-Clessé, with wines appreciated for their consistency, clarity and focus on what truly matters.
