

Domaine Marc Colin

In Saint-Aubin, Domaine Marc Colin et Fils is one of the estates that has greatly contributed to revealing the full potential of this appellation. For several generations, the Colin family has cultivated these limestone slopes with the ambition of highlighting the finesse and energy of their terroirs.

The vineyard covers around 19 hectares, spread across Saint-Aubin, Chassagne-Montrachet and Puligny-Montrachet, with a strong presence on several Saint-Aubin Premier Cru sites.

Family succession has played a particularly important role here: several members of the Colin family have established their own estates, creating different winemaking signatures that all stem from the same Saint-Aubin heritage. This dynamic has helped make the Colin name widely recognized across the Côte de Beaune.

The wines are known for their precision, tension and brightness, offering Chardonnays that rank among the most elegant expressions of Saint-Aubin.
