

Domaine Roulot

In Meursault, Domaine Roulot is one of the benchmark producers of white Burgundy, led by Jean-Marc Roulot, who has established a style defined by remarkable precision. The vineyard covers around 15 hectares, mainly located on some of the finest climats of the appellation.

The estate stands out for the purity and tension of its wines, crafted through highly precise winemaking and restrained oak ageing, resulting in finely chiselled and elegant Chardonnays.

Another distinctive feature of the domaine is its own distillation still, used to produce eaux-de-vie and Marc de Bourgogne, reflecting a rare and complete artisanal expertise.
