BRUNOLAFON
WINE SELECTION

Champagne, Francis Orban, Les Hauts Beugnets, AOC Champagne, Effervescent Brut

AOC Champagne, Champagne, France

A true pioneer, he was the first to install a press in Leuvrigny, a small village in the heart of the Marne Valley, in the charming Vallée du Flagot. Léopold Orban began making champagne, and this adventure was to inspire his son Gaëtan. Gaëtan set about developing the business and boosting operations throughout the so-called "30 Glorieuses"! He devoted all his time to developing the brand, masterfully managing the sales activity and placing the 40,000 or so bottles produced at the time.

TASTING

The first impression on the palate is supple and fresh, with a creamy effervescence. The champagne develops a pulpy, fruity texture supported by orange acidity. The mid-palate offers a greedy, coated sensation, wonderfully echoed by the chalky vibrancy that resonates on the finish. The finish concentrates this offer. Ample and delicious, it invests the palate with a highly sensual tactile caress.
