Jumilla, Spain

Bodegas Bellavista is located in the heart of the La Mancha region, in Spain and was established in 1999. The winery is a family-owned venture spanning over 80 hectares, committed to respecting their environment and enhancing it. In the heart of Murcia, the estate lies on clay and limestone, combined with hot and dry summers ideal as well as cool nights; ideal conditions for cultivating Monastrell and Tempranillo but also white varieties such as Sauvignon Blanc. The estate's commitment to quality include b
