AOC Meursault Premier Cru Les Bouchères, Bourgogne, France

Domaine Piquet Girardin was born from the merger of two estates, Anne-Marie Girardin's and Dominique Piquet's, both from families with deep winegrowing roots. Today, their son Damien takes over.

The domaine has grown with each acquisition. Today they cultivate 18 appellations on around 12 hectares of the finest Côte de Beaune vineyards, from Pommard to Maranges, via Meursault, Auxey-Duresses, Puligny-Montrachet, Chassagne-Montrachet and Santenay.

PRESENTATION

A ravishingly charming, sensual Premier Cru. This terroir is a very sheltered site with relatively early ripening.

LOCATION

Meursault 1er cru Les Bouchères comes from a single parcel.

TERROIR

Clay-limestone soil is one of the steepest of the commune's Premier Crus. It faces due east and is strewn with small pebbles that mingle with blond earth.

TASTING

This wine has a pale yellow color. On the nose, notes of citrus, white flowers and hazelnuts herald a delicate tasting experience. On the palate, freshness, tension, white fruit aromas and a lingering mineral finish.

FOOD PAIRINGS

A great wine for rock fish, grilled shellfish or poultry.
