Chianti Classico DOCG, Toscane, Italy

The estate was purchased in 2012 and is in the southernmost limit of the Chianti Classico appellation: warm soils and climate that deliver intense and powerful wines.

Tenuta Cappellina has a variety of soil types that allow them to make excellent wines in all climate conditions a vintage can offer. They practice the most natural form of agriculture, trying to make wine without toxic residues while trying to keep the quality as high as possible. The use of natural products like copper and sulphur is a m

PRESENTATION

The wine sets new standards for our Sangiovese grape variety. We took inspiration for its name from the landmark of our estate. Canto Dieci was described by Decanter magazine as "beautifully concentrated blackberry fruit and liquorice with layers of smoky complexity and a light touch of beautifully fused oak". The magazine awarded the wine "Highly Recommended" status when judging over 300 Chianti Classico producers.
