Domaine des Bellugues - IGP Méditerranée Rosé 2023

IGP Méditerranée, France

Domaine des Bellugues (a Provencal word meaning spark) owes its name to the colonies of fireflies that used to live in the woods surrounding the vineyard.

PRESENTATION

The recent and small estate of Domaine des Bellugues belongs to the Aimar family and is managed according to fundamental agricultural principles. As such it enjoys all the autonomy and diversity it needs.

It is out of concern for diversity in particular that Raphaël Aimar perpetuates sheep breeding, which was initiated by his father Pierre Aimar who always had the dream of becoming a shepherd.

TERROIR

Nature of the soils: clay-limestone soil and stony subsoil.

IN THE VINEYARD

Average age of the vines: 15 years.

WINEMAKING

Direct pressing of the grapes followed by low temperature fermentation.

VARIETALS

Grenache noir 45%, Merlot 35%, Cinsault 20%

TECHNICAL DATA

Residual Sugar: < 3 g/l

SERVING

Ideal serving temperature: from 8°C to 10°C.

TASTING

Intense pink colour with cherry-like hues. Its aromatic palette is composed of small red fruits and passion fruit combined with more mineral touches. Ample on the palate, its fresh and mellow balance is most appealing. By definition: a wine to be enjoyed.
