

Maison Vitteaut-Alberti

Located in Rully, Maison Vitteaut-Alberti has embodied the excellence of Crémant de Bourgogne since 1951, as one of the first houses dedicated exclusively to traditional method sparkling wines.

The vineyard covers around 22 hectares, spread across the finest slopes of the Côte Chalonnaise and the Hautes-Côtes de Beaune, where Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Aligoté are grown with a strong focus on freshness and finesse.

The house stands out for the elegance and precision of its cuvées, enhanced by extended ageing on lees, resulting in fine bubbles and remarkable complexity. Now led by Agnès Vitteaut, it builds on a strong legacy: Gérard Vitteaut played an active role in the 1975 decree establishing the Crémant de Bourgogne AOC, confirming the house's early ambition to become a benchmark in its category.
