

The Domaine de Sainte-Marie is rooted in a long winemaking history, passed down through several generations, driven by a deep respect for the vine and for work done well.

The vineyard, of great age, still preserves a few century-old Merlot vines, true witnesses to the estate's heritage and expertise. Planted on south-facing hillsides, this traditionally farmed vineyard gives rise to structured and elegant wines.

