

---

This very old estate still preserves a number of old Carignan vines, a traditional grape variety more than a hundred years old, true witnesses to its history.

Several generations have succeeded one another on the estate, perpetuating with dedication and passion a deep love for the vine and for work done well.

Planted on south-facing hillsides, this traditionally farmed vineyard gives rise to structured, elegant wines that are true to their terroir.

