

Domaine Lombard

Perched on the heights of Livron, at the southern edge of the Northern Rhône, Domaine Lombard embodies a contemporary vision of Rhône wines. The estate covers 23 hectares of vineyards certified organic and biodynamic (Biodyvin), spread across steep slopes and clay-limestone terraces.

Its range is structured around the Brézème terroir, which the domaine actively helps to revive, alongside key Rhône appellations such as Côtes-du-Rhône, Châteauneuf-du-Pape and Condrieu. Syrah, Roussanne, Marsanne and Viognier express themselves here with precision and character.

The vineyard is managed through organic and regenerative practices, with strong attention paid to soil life, biodiversity and vine balance. In the cellar, a precise and low-intervention approach preserves the natural expression of each terroir.

The wines stand out for their balance, tension and depth, in a style that is both modern and firmly rooted in the Rhône.
