

CHATEAU
LARCIS DUCASSE
1^{er} Grand Cru Classé

Located just a short distance from the village of Saint-Émilion, Larcis Ducasse is a hillside vineyard, set precisely in the heart of the Grande Côte, the Côte Pavie. Eleven hectares and thirty ares of vines unfold along its landscape, across both gentle and steep slopes.

From the legendary Grande Côte to the limestone promontory overlooking the Dordogne valley, the terroirs of Larcis Ducasse form a vast natural amphitheater facing south—a true geological mille-feuille of clay and limestone soils, marked by the presence of resurgent springs that emerge beneath the limestone through the blue clays... at the aptly named site known as “Grottes d'Arsis.” A well-kept secret.
