TASTING

Made from old Gamay vines grown on granite soils, Domaine de La Motte's Brouilly Vieilles Vignes displays a deep ruby color with violet highlights. The nose is expressive, offering aromas of raspberry, blackberry, liquorice, and a hint of minerality. On the palate, it is supple yet structured, with fine tannins and refreshing acidity. Traditional semi-carbonic maceration enhances its aromatic intensity while preserving a silky texture. This balanced wine can be enjoyed young or aged for added complexity.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This Brouilly Vieilles Vignes pairs beautifully with grilled red meats, duck breast, or light game dishes like herb-roasted pheasant or rabbit. It also complements aged cheeses such as Saint-Nectaire or Cantal. Serve slightly chilled (around 15°C) to highlight its finesse and generous character.
