

Domaine Hubert Bouzereau Gruere et filles

Domaine Hubert Bouzereau-Gruère & Filles is a family estate born from the union of two long-established winemaking families, one from Meursault and the other from Chassagne-Montrachet. Hubert Bouzereau, representing the seventh generation of winegrowers in his family, founded his own estate in 1970 alongside his wife Marie-France Gruère.

Since 2001, their daughters Marie-Laure and Marie-Anne have joined the estate, shaping what is now Domaine Hubert Bouzereau-Gruère & Filles. The vineyard now covers 10 hectares across six communes in the Côte de Beaune, with a production largely focused on white wines.

The estate offers a refined range of Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet. Careful soil management, strict control of yields and well-measured ageing, with limited use of new oak, result in wines of concentration, purity and freshness, true to the elegance of the great Côte de Beaune terroirs.
