RIJCKAERT ROUVE

AOP Côtes du Jura
White

PRESENTATION

Former winemaker at the famous Maison Verget, which he launched with Jean-Marie Guffens, Jean Rijkkaert and his wife Régine founded their own Domaine in 1998 in the small village of Leynes, in the very south of the Mâconnais, in the most hilly region of winegrowing Burgundy. Domaine Rijkkaert covers 9.5 ha, 4 of which are located around Mâcon in the Viré-Clessé, Mâcon-Lugny and Saint-Véran appellations, and 5.5 in the Jura in the Côtes du Jura and Arbois appellations. Jean Rijkkaert, a talented winemaker and Chardonnay specialist, runs the estate with passion, practicing sustainable agriculture in tune with the terroir. The work in the vineyard and cellar is both demanding and serious. The Mâconnais whites show minerality and great purity. Ageing, which makes little use of new wood, magnifies the raw material. The Jura cuvées are among the most authentic of the cru, harmoniously combining breed and elegance.

VARIETAL

Chardonnay 100%

LOCATION

Municipality of Buvilly.

TERROIR

The vines grow on east-facing soil of grey marl with gryphae.

HARVEST

The grapes are harvested by hand.

WINEMAKING

Vinification takes place in oak barrels, after gentle pressing of the grapes.

AGEING

Aged in barrels on fine lees for 10 months, then in vats for 3 months.

SERVING

10 to 12°C

AGEING POTENTIAL

2 to 3 years

TASTING

Bright gold. Aromas of citrus and yellow fruit mixed with intense notes of roasted dried fruit. Clean, invigorating and full-bodied, with pure, sparkling fruit. Buoyed by a fine acidity, this cuvée offers a fine, ever-refreshing body served by a long, spicy finish.

FOOD PAIRINGS

A wine that goes perfectly with trout with almonds, wild salmon with spices or flammekuche. And of course, a platter of Jura cheeses!
