

Famille Pairault, Château Teynac, AOC Saint-Julien, Rouge, 2019

AOC Saint-Julien, Bordeaux, France

PRESENTATION

The Teynac vineyard is located on the most beautiful gravelly slopes of Saint Julien, on the soils of Beychevelle, surrounded by the Classified Growths which occupy 90% of the appellation's surface. In the 3rd edition of Bordeaux et ses vins in 1874, it is mentioned that "Château Teynac, classified among the second fourth growths in the official classification of 1834." In 1990, it became the property of the Pairault family along with Château Corconnac. A traditional farming method, reasoned pest management, manual harvesting with sorting, careful vinification, and aging in French oak barrels give Château Teynac wines that are rich in color and fine tannins.

TASTING

With a beautiful presentation, this Château Teynac 2019 is characterized by an intense robe with deep purple reflections. Refined in terms of aromatic expression, it is distinguished by a nose with delicate and complex fruity nuances. The substance has a nice balance of freshness and the whole has charm with volume on the attack and a structure with savory tannins without harshness. A wine with a complex and expressive style, which is seductive thanks to this beautiful length carried by its delicate balance.
