

Château Fongaban, Puisseguin-Saint-Emilion, 2022

AOC Puisseguin-Saint-Emilion, Bordeaux, France

Château Fongaban is one of the oldest vineyards in St Emilion in the village of Puisseguin. It belonged to the Moreau family for a long time before being bought by Gabriel Taix in 1936. The vineyard now covers 42 hectares and is managed by Gabriel Taix's son and grandson.

WINEMAKING

Total scraping - Light treading - Stainless steel and concrete tanks equipped with individual thermal regulation (max 28°C) - Malolactic fermentation in tank.

AGEING

Carried out in a temperature-controlled cellar with humidity control. 60% in French oak barrels (50% one wine, 50% two wines).

VARIETALS

Merlot 85%, Cabernet franc 15%

TECHNICAL DATA

Yield: 40.00 hL/ha

Age of vines: 30 years old

Aging in vats: 1 month

Aging in barrels: 1 month

TASTING

A bouquet of blackcurrant, blackberry, and Morello cherry with spicy notes. The attack is soft with a frank, fleshy, and well-balanced texture.

