

Château Ame de Viaud - Cuvée des Capucins, Lalande-de-Pomerol, 2022

AOC Lalande-de-Pomerol, Bordeaux, France

Following his grandfather's and then his father's footsteps already in the wine production, Sébastien Godineau bought Château Ame de Viaud in 2016, a 7-hectare property in the Lalande de Pomerol and Bordeaux appellation area.

Located near the confluence of the Isle and Dordogne rivers, this appellation benefits from a sunny climate with hot, dry summers and mild, more humid winters, very conducive to vine cultivation. The terroir, of quaternary origin, is mainly clay-gravelly with traces of the legenda

WINEMAKING

Pre-fermentation maceration for 4 days at low temperature then fermentation takes place in temperature-controlled cement tanks to control the temperature for 18 days.

AGEING

The aging process takes place in new barrels for 12 months.

VARIETALS

Merlot 75%, Cabernet-sauvignon 25%

TECHNICAL DATA

Production volume: 15000

TASTING

Range of ripe black fruit aromas and subtle spicy notes. Its round and silky tannins bring a beautiful perspective to this wine.

