

PHILIBERT DU CHARME

Philibert du Charme, Cabernet-Merlot, IGP Pays d'Oc, Rouge, 2024

IGP Pays d'Oc, France

PRESENTATION

The "Philibert du Charme" range celebrates the Pays d'Oc, the world's largest vineyard, nestled in the south of France. This exceptional terroir unfolds its diversity of grape varieties, from the sun-drenched shores of the Mediterranean to the mountains of the Cévennes, all the way to the foothills of the imposing Pyrenees.

TERROIR

The Merlot and Cabernet grapes come from vineyards near Carcassonne, on the banks of the Aude, at the southern limit of Minervois. Gravelly soils with some alluvium and pebbles, Mediterranean climate.

IN THE VINEYARD

The yields are quite low (40hl/ha).

WINEMAKING

Long maceration at controlled temperature, except for 20% of the Merlot which is vinified in carbonic maceration to extract more fruit.

VARIETALS

Cabernet, Merlot

TASTING

This wine has a beautiful deep red color and a velvety appearance. The nose reveals very intense aromas of dark chocolate, cherry, and blackcurrant. This wine is rich, round with ripe tannins. It is a very complex and elegant wine.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Serve at 16°C. It pairs perfectly with stews, meats in sauce, duck breast, cheeses, and chocolate cakes.

